PHILADELPHIA COUNTY

APRIL TERM 2013

No. 2094

NOTICE OF CROSS-APPEAL

Notice is hereby given that Plaintiffs A.Y. and Billie Ann Yount appeal to the Superior Court of Pennsylvania, pursuant to Pa.R.A.P. 341, from the Judgment entered by Praeipce on September 8, 2016, in favor of Plaintiffs and against Defendants Johnson & Johnson Pharmaceutical Research and Development, LLC, Johnson & Johnson Company, and Janssen Pharmaceuticals, Inc., in the amount of $76,661,027.40. A copy of the Judgment is attached as Exhibit "A". The Judgment has been entered on the docket as evidenced by the docket entries attached as Exhibit "B".

The Judgment entered September 8, 2016 makes appealable all previously non-final Orders.¹ In addition to appealing the Judgment, Plaintiffs appeal the Order entered July 25, 2016, denying Plaintiffs' motion for post-trial relief (attached as Exhibit "C"). They appeal the Order entered May 2, 2014, granting Defendants' Motion for Partial Summary Judgment as the Plaintiffs' Claims for Punitive Damages (attached as Exhibit "D"). And they appeal of the trial court's Order entered July 18, 2014, denying Plaintiffs' Motion for Reconsideration (attached as Exhibit "E").

The May 2 and July 18 Orders were entered on the general docket for Risperdal litigation rather than the docket of the instant case. See Risperdal Global Docket (attached as Exhibit "F"). However, the Orders are appealable in the instant case by virtue of Case Management Order No. 1 of In re: Risperdal Litigation, Phila CCP, March Term 2010, No. 296, entered May 26, 2010 ("CMO 1") (attached as Exhibit "G").

By way of background, CMO 1 governs all Risperdal cases filed in Philadelphia County. It establishes a mass tort program for cases filed in Philadelphia County involving allegations of personal injury resulting from ingestion of the prescription drug Risperdal. It establishes a global docket "for the filing of pleadings, motions, orders, and other documents common to the Risperdal®/Risperidone cases." Id. In particular, CMO 1 provides that once a document is filed in the global docket, the document may be "incorporated by reference" within another document filed in an individual Risperdal case. The relevant language provides:

Once a pleading, motion, order or other document is filed on this docket and copies are provided to all other interested counsel involved in the Risperdal®/Risperidone litigation, the pleadings, motion, order, or other document may be incorporated by reference, either orally before the Court, or within another properly filed pleadings, motion, order, or other document.

Id. at p.1. Thus, CMO 1 provides a mechanism for incorporating by reference documents filed in the global docket into the docket of an individual Risperdal case.

This case is part of the Risperdal Mass Tort Program and is subject to CMO 1. Under CMO 1, Plaintiffs hereby incorporate by reference the following documents that were filed on the global docket for Risperdal litigation into this Notice of Appeal, such that those filings are deemed to have been filed in the instant case and are part of the record on appeal for this case:

- Defendants' Motion for Partial Summary Judgment as to Plaintiffs' Claims for Punitive Damages, filed Feb. 10, 2014;
- Plaintiffs' Response to Defendants Motion for Partial Summary Judgment, filed March 24, 2014;
- Defendants' Reply in Support of Motion for Partial Summary Judgment, filed March 31, 2014;
- Order granting Motion for Partial Summary Judgment, entered May 2, 2014;
- Plaintiffs' Motion for Reconsideration, filed June 3, 2014;
- Defendants Opposition to Plaintiffs' Motion for Reconsideration, filed June 9, 2014;
- Plaintiffs Reply in Support of Motion for Reconsideration, filed June 12, 2014
- Order denying Motion for Reconsideration, entered July 18, 2014.

Under CMO 1, each of these documents is deemed to have been filed within the instant case and to be part of the record on appeal within the meaning of Pa.R.A.P. 1921.

In summary, Plaintiffs appeal from the Judgment entered in this case on September 8, 2016. Plaintiffs also appeal several of the interlocutory orders that merged into the judgment, including the Order entered July 25, 2016 denying Plaintiff's motion for post-trial relief, and the Orders entered on the Risperdal Global Docket on May 2, 2014 and July 18, 2014.

ORDER

AND NOW, this 2nd day of May, 2014, upon consideration of Defendants
Janssen Pharmaceuticals, Inc.; Johnson & Johnson; and Janssen Research & Development,
LLC's Motion for Partial Summary Judgment as to Plaintiffs' Claims for Punitive Damages
(Count XI), and the response of Plaintiffs, if any, it is ORDERED that motion is GRANTED.¹

BY THE COURT:

Arnold New, J.

In Re: Risperdal Litiga-ORDER

10030029600139

IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS
PHILADELPHIA COUNTY

IN RE: RISPERDAL LITIGATION

This Document Relates to All Cases

MARCH TERM, 2010
NO. 00296

DOCKETED
COMPLEX LIT CENTER

MAY 26 2010

J. STEWART

CASE MANAGEMENT ORDER NO. 1: GOVERNING ALL RISPERDAL®/RISPERIDONE CASES

It is the goal of this Court to secure the just, speedy, and cost-effective determination of each case filed by a Plaintiff alleging injuries and/or death as a result of his/her usage of the prescription drug Risperdal® ("Risperdal") and/or Risperidone now pending or hereafter filed in the Court of Common Pleas, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, and to eliminate duplication of effort, prevent unnecessary paperwork, and promote judicial economy.

In order to achieve these objectives, the following Case Management Order No. 1 is entered this 26th day of May, 2010 for all individual Risperdal®/Risperidone cases that are presently pending or hereafter filed in the Philadelphia Court of Common Pleas.

I. RISPERDAL®/RISPERIDONE CASES DOCKET

The Court has established a Risperdal®/Risperidone Docket at March Term 2010, No. 00296. This docket number was established as a depository for the filing of pleadings, motions, orders, and other documents common to the Risperdal®/Risperidone cases. Once a pleading, motion, order, or other document is filed on this docket and copies are provided to all other interested counsel involved in the Risperdal®/Risperidone litigation, the pleading, motion, order, or other document may be incorporated by reference, either orally before the Court, or within another properly filed pleading, motion, order, or other document.

II. TEMPORARY STAY ON RESPONSIVE PLEADINGS OBLIGATIONS AND FILING DISPOSITIVE MOTIONS

All responsive pleading obligations are stayed until such time as responsive pleadings are due under the relevant Sections below. The parties in these cases are directed to refrain from filing any potentially dispositive motions (i.e., Motions for Summary Judgment, Motions or Judgment on the Pleadings), except as detailed in this and future Orders. However, no current or future party has waived any rights, claims, or defenses existing at the time of the execution of this Order.

III. PLEADINGS

A. MASTER LONG FORM COMPLAINT

1. Within thirty (30) days from the entry of this Order, counsel for Plaintiffs in pending Risperdal®/Risperidone cases shall confer and shall collectively file a Master Long Form Complaint. The Master Long Form Complaint must be served on each Defendant, in accordance with the provisions of this Order, before a response is required by that Defendant.

2. On or before ^{twenty (20)} ~~thirty (30)~~ days after valid service of the Master Long Form Complaint on a Defendant, that Defendant shall file either (a) a Master Answer or (b) Master Preliminary Objections to the Master Long Form Complaint.

3. Plaintiffs shall have ^{twenty (20)} ~~thirty (30)~~ days to respond to the Master Preliminary Objections and any replies thereto shall be filed within ten (10) business days of service.

4. The Court will rule on the Master Preliminary Objections. The Court's ruling on the Master Preliminary Objections will be binding on all current and future Risperdal®/Risperidone cases.

5. If Master Preliminary Objections are sustained to one or more counts in the Master Long Form Complaint for Risperdal®/Risperidone cases, Plaintiffs, if so ordered, shall file a ~~controlling~~ Amended Master Long Form Complaint within twenty (20) days of the Order sustaining the Master Preliminary Objections.

6. All Short Form Complaints and all Master Answers are deemed to follow the most current Amended Master Long Form Complaint and Answer, respectively.

7. If New Matter is pleaded in the Master Answer, such New Matter will be deemed denied, and Defendants' exceptions to the denials are preserved and Plaintiffs are not required to file any further responsive pleadings to Defendants' New Matter asserted in the Master Answer.

B. PREVIOUSLY FILED CASES

1. The Master Long Form Complaint for the Risperdal®/Risperidone cases will substitute and supersede all Complaints filed in individual Risperdal®/Risperidone cases pending in the Philadelphia County Court of Common Pleas. If any Complaint filed before the Master Answer asserts claims not asserted in the Master Long Form Complaint, those claims are deemed withdrawn without prejudice. In all respects, the Master Long Form Complaint controls over allegations contained in any previously filed Complaint. The filing of the Master Long Form Complaint does not toll any applicable statute of limitations in individual cases.

2. Defendants shall have no obligation to answer any complaint filed before the Master Long Form Complaint.

3. Within twenty-five (25) days of the filing of the Master Answer or the Court's ruling on the Master Preliminary Objections, each Plaintiff in a Risperdal®/Risperidone case, whether initiated by Writ of Summons or Complaint, shall file a Short Form Complaint, in a form to be agreed upon with Defendants' counsel, using each action's original court term and number. Plaintiffs shall indicate in each Short Form Complaint those counts of the Master Complaint that are incorporated by reference. Any case previously initiated by a Writ of Summons shall be subject to dismissal in accordance with the notice provision of Pennsylvania

Rules of Civil Procedure 236 if the Short Form Complaint is not filed in accordance with this paragraph.

4. All allegations in Short Form Complaints will be deemed denied, and Defendants are not required to file answers to Short Form Complaints, unless any Plaintiff alleges a cause of action not included in the Master Long Form Complaint, in which case Defendants may file a Preliminary Objection to any such count. If additional causes of action are alleged in a Short Form Complaint, the specific facts supporting these allegations shall be pleaded in accordance with the Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure, and the defendants against whom they are alleged must be specifically identified on a separate sheet of paper attached to the Short Form Complaint. An entry of appearance shall constitute a denial of all allegations in the Short Form Complaint for Risperdal®/Risperidone cases, and an assertion of all applicable new matters and defenses.

5. Defendants will not file Preliminary Objections challenging claims as to which Preliminary Objections have previously been overruled.

6. Defendants shall have ^{twenty (20)} ~~thirty (30)~~ days to file Preliminary Objections to Short Form Complaints. Plaintiffs shall have ^{twenty (20)} ~~thirty (30)~~ days from the date of service of Preliminary Objections to file a response, and Defendants shall file any replies thereto within ten (10) days from the date of service.

7. The Court will rule on the Preliminary Objections, and whether a hearing thereon is scheduled is solely within the discretion of the Court.

8. If the Court's ruling on Preliminary Objections to a Short Form Complaint does not provide for the filing of an Amended Short Form Complaint, the remaining allegations of the Short Form Complaint shall be deemed denied.

9. If any of the Court's rulings permit a Plaintiff to file an Amended Short Form Complaint, Defendants shall be afforded twenty (20) days after service of the Amended Short Form Complaint in which to file a responsive pleading.

10. If no responsive pleading is filed, allegations in an Amended Short Form Complaint will be deemed denied.

C. NEWLY FILED CASES

1. Any newly filed Risperdal/Risperidone case shall be filed by Writ of Summons until a Master Answer is filed or the Master Preliminary Objections are ruled on. Within thirty (30) days of the filing of the Master Answer or the Court's ruling on the Master Preliminary Objections, each Plaintiff in a newly filed Risperdal/Risperidone case shall file a Short Form Complaint, in a form to be agreed upon with Defendants' counsel. Thereafter, all newly filed cases shall be initiated via Short Form Complaint. But if suit is instituted via Writ of Summons, it is self-executing and Plaintiff shall file a Short Form Complaint within twenty (20) days without need of a Rule To File A Complaint. If Plaintiff fails to file a Short Form Complaint within twenty-five (25) days, the action may be subject to dismissal, upon application to the Court and in accordance with the notice provision of Pennsylvania Rule of Civil Procedure 236 if the Short Form Complaint is not filed in accordance with this paragraph.

2. Plaintiffs shall indicate in each Short Form Complaint those counts of the Master Long Form Complaint that are incorporated by reference.

3. If additional causes of action are alleged in a Short Form Complaint, the specific facts supporting these allegations shall be pleaded in accordance with the Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure, and the defendants against whom they are alleged must be specifically identified on a separate sheet of paper attached to the Short Form Complaint.

4. Defendants shall have ^{thirty (30)} ~~thirty~~ days from the date of service of the Short Form Complaint to file Preliminary Objections to each Short Form Complaint.

5. An entry of appearance shall constitute a denial of all allegations in Short Form Complaint and an assertion of all applicable defenses.

6. Defendants shall not file Preliminary Objections challenging claims as to which Master Preliminary Objections have previously been overruled.

7. Plaintiffs shall have ^{thirty (30)} ~~thirty~~ days from the date of service of Preliminary Objections to file a response and any replies thereto shall be filed within ten (10) days of service.

8. The Court will rule on the Preliminary Objections.

9. If the Court's ruling on Preliminary Objections to a Short Form Complaint does not provide for the filing of an Amended Short Form Complaint, the remaining allegations of the Short Form Complaint shall be deemed denied.

10. If any of the Court's rulings permit a plaintiff to file an Amended Short Form Complaint, Defendants shall be afforded twenty (20) days after service of an Amended Short Form Complaint in which to file a responsive pleading.

D. SERVICE ON LIAISON COUNSEL.

1. Service of all documents under the "Risperdal®/Risperidone" master caption shall be served on Liaison Counsel.

2. Service on Liaison Counsel shall be deemed as service on all counsel, and Liaison Counsel shall be responsible for disseminating to all co-counsel. The parties will make a single service of these documents in paper copy form to opposing Liaison Counsel, and will also serve these documents simultaneously to opposing Liaison Counsel electronically in PDF or similar format. Other Plaintiffs' counsel who are counsel of record for cases pending in these Risperdal®/Risperidone cases who would like copies of these documents may be bound by the terms of a Protective Order that may be entered by this Court and must make arrangements through Plaintiffs' Liaison Counsel for the Risperdal/Risperidone cases if they wish to obtain copies of these documents.

3. All documents served on Liaison Counsel shall be served on Liaison Counsel in accordance with the Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure and the Philadelphia Court of Common Pleas Mass Tort Program and Complex Litigation Center rules.

4. All case specific documents shall be served on proper individual counsel in a manner consistent with the Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure and the Philadelphia Court of Common Pleas Mass Tort Program and Complex Litigation Center rules.

IV. APPOINTMENT OF LIAISON COUNSEL

1. The following attorneys are hereby appointed as Liaison Counsel:

Plaintiffs' Liaison Counsel:

and
Michael T. Mervis, Esquire
Proskauer
1585 Broadway
New York, NY 10036-8299

All other defendants shall be served with original process pursuant to the applicable Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure.

2. As to Defendants Elsevier, Inc. and Excerpta Medica, Inc., service will be effective ten (10) days after receipt of same in accordance with this Section. The foregoing procedure shall apply to Risperdal®/Risperidone products liability cases filed in the Philadelphia County Court of Common Pleas and not to any other litigation. Defendants reserve all other rights available to them under federal or state law and under applicable treaties and conventions.

VII. FURTHER ORDERS

1. The parties shall prepare for review and approval by the Court such other Case Management Orders as are required, including, without limitations, orders governing deposition procedures and scheduling (including coordination with other Risperdal®/Risperidone litigation), pretrial proceedings and trial proceedings.
